CHALLENGES IN BANKING AND FINANCIAL SERVICES INDUSTRY

While providing convenience to clients with digitization of financial services, the industry is increasingly vulnerable to cyberattacks, which can result in data breaches and financial losses.

Therefore, it is crucial to keep key cybersecurity IT personnel informed timely through alerts and notifications once any security breach is detected, to mitigate or eliminate such cyber attacks.

Ensuring clients' secure remote access to their personal account data, fortified by robust multi-factor authentication, provides clients with the confidence that their personal and financial information is safeguarded.

THE BANK AND FSI EXPERIENCE WITH SENDQUICK

SendQuick is the ideal solution for the banking & FSI industry to ensure clients' secure remote access to personal account data.

Improve Your Operations Efficiency

Automate administrative tasks which allows you to prioritize customer-centric services. SendQuick solutions can integrate with CRM applications or function as standalone messaging platforms with multi-factor authentication for securing remote access, all managed from a single dashboard.

Escalate Your IT Responsiveness To Outages

Deliver instant alerts and notifications via omnichannel social messengers, SMS, email, voice, which enables staff's rapid response to IT outages. This minimizes operational disruptions and safeguards reputation and profitability.

Reduce Customer Risk Exposure

Secure messaging without internet dependency, thus reducing cyber threats. Our authentication solution enables secure transactions without tokens or client-ware.

Boost Client Interaction

Enhance organization and customer engagement by managing appointments, notifications, reminders, and offering two-way messaging. This interactivity significantly improves customer experiences.

Enhance Your Marketing Outreach

Utilize a unified messaging platform for marketing teams to send concise messages to all mobile devices, resulting in a higher open-read rate. Ideal for banks and FSIs seeking to maintain communication with customers.

Lower Your Carbon Footprint

Send paperless reminders and notifications to customers, saving time and money with concise, effective messages. Also facilitates obtaining acknowledgements and approvals.
